

West Midlands Police competition terms and conditions

1. The promoter of this competition is the Chief Constable of West Midlands Police of Lloyd House, Colmore Circus Queensway, Birmingham B4 6NQ ("West Midlands Police")
2. Entry to the competition is free and no purchase is required to enter this competition.
3. By entering into this competition West Midlands Police assume (and you warrant that) that you are over 18 and are of sufficient mental capacity to be legally bound by this contract
4. Employees, contractors and office holders of the Chief Constable of West Midlands Police and the Police and Crime Commissioner for West Midlands or their family members or anyone else connected in any way with the competition shall not be permitted to enter the competition.
5. Details on how to enter the competition can be found at: www.saferstudents.co.uk or located at the Safer Students stall at your freshers fair.
6. The rules of the competition and the prize for the winner is as follows:
The competition runs from 29 September 2016 to 29 November 2016
This competition is only open to students over 18 years old in the West Midlands
To enter the competition, guess how many keys are in the jar. Tweet your answer to @SaferStudents using the hashtag #lockuplightson. The person who guesses correctly, or the closest wins a £50 Amazon Voucher.
7. The closing date for entry is 29 November 2016. No further entries are permitted after this date.
8. One entry per person.
9. No responsibility can be accepted for entries not received for whatever reason.
10. West Midlands Police reserves the right to cancel or amend the competition and these terms and conditions without notice for reasons outside of its control and it shall not be held liable for any failure to comply with its obligations for reasons outside of its control.
11. West Midlands Police is not responsible for inaccurate prize details supplied to any entrant by any third party connected with this competition.
12. The winner will be selected as to who guesses the correct amount of keys in the jar or guesses the closest figure. Should there be more than one correct answer, the entrants will be placed into a draw and randomly selected.
13. The prize is not transferable.
14. The winner will be notified via the Twitter account they have used to apply and submit their answer. If the winner cannot be contacted or does not claim the prize within 14 days of notification, West Midlands Police reserve the right to withdraw the prize from the winner and pick a replacement winner.
15. West Midlands Police will notify the winner and terms will be negotiated as to how they would like to receive the prize.
16. West Midlands Police's decision in respect of all matters to do with the competition will be final and no correspondence will be entered into. Legal review is excluded.
17. Entry into the competition will be deemed as acceptance of these terms and conditions.
18. By taking part in this competition the winner agrees to take part in any reasonable publicity organised in connection with this promotion.
19. Any personal data relating to the winner or any other entrants will be used solely in accordance with current UK data protection legislation and will not be disclosed to a third party without the entrant's prior consent.
20. The competition and these terms and conditions will be governed by English law and any disputes will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.